

HOW ABOUT...?

Tennis and Gorillas in Kigali, Rwanda, Africa

When: Late August 2026 - one week

What: Tennis exchange with local players – they are good!

Tour the National Parks for gorillas and chimpanzees

Sightseeing in Kigali – genocide memorials, tea plantations, custom clothing, and surroundings. Possibility of helping with community service on the last Saturday of the month.

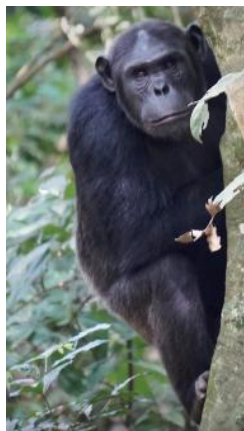

Add a safari in Akagera or Tanzania – make your own arrangements.

Next: Continue on to Europe for more tennis in other countries like Spain, Greece, Germany between Aug 30 and Sep 13.

Cost: Air to Kigali - NY-Kigali around $ 500 (in 2025)

Tennis Camp – 3 days – estimated $300.

Hotel – Approx. $100 per night

Get a glimpse of what to see and a link to more photos by Jason Benedict who was visited Rwanda and Tanzania this year and loved it. He has many more photos and videos on his Facebook page; facebook.com/jason.benedict.737.

Jason Benedict from Calgary, Canada is organizing this very unique trip.

Send your interest to (jason@thebenedicts.ca) asap, please. This will take a lot of coordination. The sooner he knows, the better.